

The National Alliance for Partnerships in Equity focuses on improving the achievement of all students with a focus on special population students, in secondary and postsecondary programs that lead to high-skill, high-wage, and nontraditional careers. NAFE supports its members by

- ▼ Developing educational materials that promote equitable learning environments
- ▼ Analyzing federal accountability data and publishes reports to impact public policy and local program improvement
- ▼ Providing technical assistance to states and local agencies regarding the implementation of Perkins, WIA, Title IX, Welfare, and other legislation related to education and workforce development
- ▼ Disseminating position papers in response to legislation being developed in Congress
- ▼ Partnering with other organizations to conduct research and implement model programs
- ▼ Providing input to federal education and workforce development agencies
- ▼ Conducting professional development workshops throughout the country
- ▼ Hosting the premier Professional Development Institute for equity professionals
- ▼ Maintaining a members-only listserve and website with updates, publications, links, and resources
